The Honorable Mayor and Board of Aldermen City of Manchester City Hall Manchester, NH 03101

Dear Mr. Mayor and Aldermen:

Please accept for your consideration the following project summary for the Wrap for Youth Resiliency (WRY) Project. The following attachment is a cover sheet for Fiscal Year 2005, the OJJDP Delinquency Prevention Formula Grant. Included in this document is a WYR Project Summary, along with a statement of Goals and Objectives for the Project. There is also a Statement of Total Project Cost, equaling one hundred and forty-three thousand, five hundred and forty-eight dollars ($143,548.00). This figure represents a grant request of one hundred and thirteen thousand, two hundred and ten dollars ($113,210.00), plus in-kind services in the amount of thirty thousand, three hundred and thirty-eight dollars ($30,338.00).

The OJJDP Delinquency Formula Grant Program as a three year limit on funding. This extremely competitive grant funds at 100% the first year, 66% the second year, and at 33% in the third year.

The Office of Youth Services, in collaboration with the Manchester School District, the Manchester Police Department, and the Manchester Division of Juvenile Justice Services, is proposing to fund two youth services counselors to provide WYR Project services. The essence of this project is to intensify communication and coordination among the youth-serving and public safety agencies that work to reduce delinquency and delinquency-like behaviors among youth in our community.

By supporting this project, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen will be joining more than thirty-five youth-serving agencies and individual citizens throughout Manchester in our joint goal: to reduce juvenile delinquency, truancy and school drop-outs.

Should you have any questions or wish further information, please do not hesitate to call on me at 624-6470 or at MBOLDIN@ManchesterNH.gov.

Very truly yours

Project Title: The Wrap for Youth Resiliency Project

Project Summary: The City of Manchester Office of Youth Services (OYS) is proposing multifaceted approach to reducing juvenile delinquency in the City. The Wrap for Youth Resiliency Project (WYR Project) has three main components.

First, each of the four Manchester School District Middle Schools (Hillside, Parkside, Southside and McLaughlin) will refer five students to the project. These twenty students will be referred to the WYR Project on the basis that they evidence histories of truancy and other behavioral problems that have interfered with their ability to be successful at school. WYR Project staff will work to establish communication networks between OYS, Manchester Police Department (MPD), Juvenile Probation and Parole Officers (JPPO), and all relevant school personnel. The purpose of these communications will be to coordinate understanding of student strengths and needs among all players who are likely to have contact with the student and their family. Furthermore, WYR Project staff will work to ensure strong communication between family and all appropriate personnel is facilitated via "Pre-Wrap" meetings. Finally, WYR Project staff will work to insure that appropriate resources are tapped to insure maximum use of the City's current service array for young people. As young people benefit from the project (i.e. reduced problematic behavior in school and increased pro-social behaviors at school, community and home), they will be placed on "Cool" status where they will receive intermittent follow-up. As students are moved to "Cool" status, new referrals will be accepted into the WYR Project to maintain program census. Students and families participating in this part of the WYR project are predicted to increase school attendance over previous year's performance by 50%; decrease in school suspensions and disciplinary issues in the school by 50% over the previous year's performance; and improve academic performance in school by 20% as measured by increases grade averages as compared to previous year's performance. Ultimately, by improving attendance and consistency in expectations at home, school and the community, these participants will decrease their likelihood of engaging in more problematic behavior later in life. According to several studies (Heaviside et al., 1998) (Garry, 1996; Roderick et al., 1997) (Kelley et al., 1997) (Snyder and Sickmund, 1995) (U.S. Department of Education, 1993), preventing truancy, problematic behavior in schools and increasing academic performance provide significant protective factors for reducing the likelihood of delinquency.

Second, WYR Project staff will work closely with staff at OYS, MPD Juvenile Division and the Manchester School District to have "Hot-Wrap" meetings for young people at risk of receiving CHINS petitions. For example, at OYS, the WYR Project staff would review all children at risk of receiving a CHINS petition before the petition is filed with the Manchester District Court. WYR Project staff will be trained by CareNH staff on how to perform wrap-around meetings that are family driven, culturally competent and strength-based. Like "Pre-Wrap" services mentioned above, the "Hot-Wrap" process will communicate and coordinate services between all relevant players in the community. Over the last three years, the total number of CHINS petitions filed in the Manchester District Court almost doubled from (79) in 2001 to (134) in 2003. More importantly CHINS petitions represented 10% of all cases seen in 2001 and now represent 18% of all juvenile cases seen at the Court. The ultimate goal of these "Hot-Wraps" is to reduce the number of CHINS petitions filed with the Manchester District Court by 10% over the course of a calendar year. By the end of the 3rd quarter of the grant cycle in year one, it is projected that WYR Project staff will review approximately 20% to 30% of all CHINS petitions filed in the Manchester District Court. By invoking the "Hot-Wrap" process in this protocol, at the very least, JPPOs understanding of the case will be much enhanced thus insuring greater success of their interventions should the group decide to move forward with the CHINS process. If the group can work with the family and all relevant parties to avoid the CHINS process and seek remedy in the community by better coordinating resources, then the WYR Project will provide great relief to the court system and, more importantly, keep young people out of the criminal justice system.

Finally, WYR Project staff will work with JPPOs and staff at the Youth Development Center (YDC) to coordinate an "After-Wrap" process for young people leaving YDC and coming back to Manchester. In this phase of the program WYR Project staff would meet with staff at YDC with JPPOs 60 to 90 days in advance of the release of a young person who is scheduled to come back to Manchester. Again, all wrap-around services will follow the model stated in the previous two paragraphs. The goal of this series of "After-Wrap" meetings is to develop a plan that insures maximum success for a young person who is making the transition from a controlled environment to life in the community. After being released into the community, WYR Project staff would aide in all relevant communications between families, service providers, schools and families. Hopefully, this program will result in lower recidivism rates and higher rates of academic and social success for young people making this difficult transition. The Goals of this part of the WYR Project are to provide (3) "After-Wrap" meetings for (10) to (15) YDC residents that are scheduled to return to Manchester during FY2005. Each of these YDC residents will receive comprehensive bio-psychosocial planning to insure maximum likelihood that they will be able to make the transition from incarcerated life to life in the community with as much success as possible. Each plan will have measurable goals. All referrals will receive services for 2 or 3 months before they are released and WYR staff will work with JPPOs and all other relevant players for 6 months after the young person's release while measuring the effectiveness of the established plans. Goals for this section include having complete bio-psycho-social plans for 100% of program participants; having (2) pre-release and (4) post-release meetings for 80% of program participants; having 70% of all plan goals met for all persons who complete the "After-Wrap" process; and having 60% of all referrals complete the protocol.

The project will have a detailed implementation plan and a strong evaluation component. Evaluation will focus on analyzing incoming referrals, outgoing referral recommendations and outcomes related to an individualized treatment plan designed for each program participant. The program's success will be measured by the WYR Project team's ability to meet individualized goals with the family and the overall reduction of delinquency and delinquency-like behavior in each young person referred to the program. Productivity will also be measured throughout the project. In a project with so many facets, it will be critical to notice how time and resources are divided among the individual tasks. Finally, all partners to the project will also be asked to evaluate the program's strengths and weaknesses as it is implemented to aid their systems.

To accomplish these goals the City of Manchester Office of Youth Services will hire (2) Youth Services Counselors. These services will be supplemented by aid from (2) MSW Interns from the University of New Hampshire, Administrative Support and Clinical Supervision from the Director of the Office of Youth Services.

 - b. Minutes of March 1, 2004 Commission Meeting. BOISVERT made a motion to approve the Minutes of the March 1, 2004 Meeting. Seconded by GUSTAFSON. All Commissioners in favor.

MANAGEMENT REPORTS

 a. Financial Report for February 2004. BOISVERT made a motion to approve the Financial Report for February 2004. Seconded by DESELLE. All Commissioners in favor.

Transit Operation: CANTWELL reported total revenue was $12,000 under budget, while operating revenue is $5,230 over budget. Farebox income averaged $3,750 per weekly deposit, with ticket sales showing an increase. He indicated year-to-date revenue is $59,000 behind the budget. The City's subsidy shortfall against the budget is $82,109 but is offset with the increase in operational revenue to $54,000.

Expenses for February are $20,371 less than budgeted. Payroll allocations of $5,200 in wages have been moved from the transit and maintenance operations to the school operation. Utilities are over budget this month (75% utility costs are incurred during the months of January and February) but will fall in line from now until June. Year-to-date expenses are $33,239 under budget; -1.7%.

School Revenue: Revenue for February was up $18,184 due to the increase in billable buses, while monthly expenses were $16,236 more than budgeted.

Reallocating maintenance and transit wages has helped reduced this variance.

Expenses year-to-date are $63,334 under budget. Spring charter work will increase payroll, which will reduce budget variance.

Commissioners had no questions on the Balance Sheet.

The Board reviewed the Income Statement with BOISVERT questioning transit overtime wages. JENISKI explained some overtime incurred due to extra StepSaver work and a higher experience of full-time operators doing schoolwork. CANTWELL stated transit and E&H overtime is over budget for the year, but equal to budget for the month. TRISCIANI voiced his concerns about the overtime. JESPERSEN asked when transit operators do school work is their time charged towards the school operation? CANTWELL affirmed.

The Aged Trial Balance was reviewed. SMITH explained the School District has started running checks once per month instead of twice per month so collections are slower. However, these invoices are within 60 days of invoice date with only - one invoice over 90 days. CANTWELL explained as of January 29th the School District owed $164,000; today it is down to $37,000.

- b. Ridership/Transit Report for February 2004. JENISKI stated ridership is flat. There is less ridership on the Bedford Mall and Verizon Shuttle. Airport and Goffs Falls ridership has increased 147 passengers. The farebox report is comparable with driver tabulations, so JENISKI has stopped drivers from tabulating passengers. He commended all operators for their diligence in getting accurate passenger counts. JENISKI stated the dispatchers are now monitoring StepSaver "no shows/cancellations." He explained he and SMITH met with the President and a representative of the New Hampshire Fisher Cats baseball team to discuss their transportation needs. They discussed parking options and feel the parking situation will resolve and all agreed there are no parking lots close enough to the stadium to be attractive for shuttle passengers. SMITH stated another concern is after a game and the people disperse, once the bus returns for its second pickup everybody is gone. SMITH informed them we would be available for whatever assistance they may need.
- c. School Report for February 2004. JENISKI spoke about the safety meetings conducted during the month for the school operators. He also noted that during the month there were eight new trainees who completed all the necessary State testing, bringing us up to 75 school bus operators employed during the month of February.

JENISKI informed the Board that the New Hampshire School Transportation

Association ("NHSTA") is offering a School Bus Instructor Development

Program on April 27th through April 30th, with the MTA hosting the April 30th class. A sign up sheet has been posted and they will be interviewing candidates for the selection of two qualified individuals.

JENISKI said the State inspected all of our school buses and commended BEAUREGARD and his staff for a good report. School Dispatcher Virginia Griffen recently attended a week-long First Transit Supervisor Training Seminar in Connecticut.

d. Maintenance Report for February 2004. BEAUREGARD reported standard mileage and inspections are on target. Road calls were good with only one bus having a problem. He explained the overtime incurred this month was in preparation for the upcoming State inspection. He reported there were no on the job injuries.

NEW BUSINESS

3 a. State of NH – Six Year Capital Plan. SMITH explained the Community Improvement Program ("CIP") submitted for capital expenses included replacing three transit buses, two vans and the transit radio system, and upgrading the computer network. We were informed the CIP Committee would recommend all those projects to the Board of Mayor and Aldermen. SMITH stated the State is in the process of doing its biennial budget and the Department of Transportation has invited MTA to include our CIP projects into their budget proposal. SMITH requested the Board's endorsement of his request for the State of New Hampshire to fund half the local share of projects we submitted to the City for FY 2006 and FY 2007. DESELLE made a motion to approve the projects submitted to the - Department of Transportation for their biennial program. Seconded by JESPERSEN. All Commissioners in favor.

- b. Manchester Transportation Center Lease Agreement. SMITH explained we have a five-year lease agreement (three-year with two-year extension option) with Concord Trailways for the operation of the Manchester Transportation Center. There is a provision in this contract to renegotiate the price after three years ending May 31, 2004, and if not agreed, to go out for bid. The current lease agreement is $1,600 per month, $19,200 per year. He and JENISKI met with Ken Hunter of Concord Trailways. Mr. Hunter informed them that in the past all buses leaving Concord to Boston would stop at the Manchester Terminal continuing into Boston. This service has been cut down to two buses stopping in Manchester. There are still direct commuter trips from Manchester to Boston. They service three to four buses for Vermont Transit and one bus for Peter Pan daily. Their volume of activity has drastically decreased. SMITH spoke with Ken Hazeltine, NH Department of Transportation, because the State leases a large facility to Concord Trailways in Concord. The State is leasing their facility to Concord Trailways for $1.00 per year, but Concord Trailways is maintaining a large parking lot. After talking to Mr. Hazeltine and transportation providers, and taking into consideration the volume of business Concord Trailways is doing, SMITH recommended trying to maintain the current level of rent. Concord Trailways wants to maintain the relationship and the MTA requires an able tenant.
- c. Requesting Property, Auto, and Liability Insurance Proposals. SMITH explained our five-year contract with Ferdinando Insurance Associates, Inc.

expires July 1st. We placed a legal notice requesting Letters of Interest and Qualification Statements from qualified insurance brokers. We have had two other agencies interested in making proposals. MTA will be receiving qualification statements on April 5th. We need to narrow our broker selection to one or two firms. If there are too many brokers involved, they get crisscrossed seeking prices since there are only a few insurance companies that insure bus operations. Brokers will be assigned markets. SMITH explained two years ago we were paying $143,000 total for our casualty insurances, then it jumped to $375,000, and then it jumped to $425,000 for this year. SMITH stated the market appears to have softened and should see some competition amongst insurance companies. SMITH requested two members of the Board serve on the Insurance Selection Committee. JESPERSEN and BOISVERT volunteered to be on the Insurance Committee. GUSTAFSON asked if we would pursue a ten-year contract. SMITH stated although Federal regulations allow for ten year contracts, he wants to sign a three year contract with a two year option. He expressed we have had a good relationship with Ferdinando Insurance Associates, but we must be competitive.

d. Senior Citizen Spaghetti & Meatball Supper. SMITH explained Troop 135 –
Boy Scouts of America is holding their annual spaghetti supper for the elderly.

They are once again looking for a bus to travel to three City of Manchester elderly housing complexes that don't provide transportation. BOISVERT made a motion to provide a bus for this event on April 3rd. Seconded by GUSTAFSON. All Commissioners in favor.

e. Elderly Services Festival. The Manchester Elderly Services Department will be conducting the "First Annual Resource Festival" for seniors, caregivers and their families. We have been approached to provide transportation for seniors living in City housing complexes. SMITH recommended we set up a fixed route with published timetables to run between all senior complexes and the event.

Timetables will be furnished to all City housing locations. He also recommended establishing a free fare. GUSTAFSON recommended doing a press release, advertising on MCTV, and placing flyers on buses. JESPERSEN made a motion to provide this service on April 13th for the Festival. Seconded by GUSTAFSON. All Commissioners in favor.

OLD BUSINESS

4. a. VersaTrans Update. PORTER explained a VersaTrans trainer has been on the property for two days. PORTER, Virginia Griffin, and Manchester School District's Barbara Gagne are involved. The program has been instituted with students' names and addresses being uploaded into the computer. They are in the process of correcting minor mistakes like zip code and street address errors.

Today they started routing the students and the VersaTrans trainer will be back on May 10th through 12th. There will be a School Board meeting during that time and a sales representative from VersaTrans has been asked to do a presentation before the School Committee Members. The program will be operating for September 2004. SMITH said the program will be a great communication tool with the School District and will improve communication with parents and the public.

- b. Proposed FY 2005 Budget. SMITH stated the Mayor is presenting his budget to the Board of Mayor and Aldermen tonight. SMITH explained in FY 2003 we received $725,000 in subsidy towards our operation. At that time the Board voted to maintain current level service by funding $130,000 from equity. This past year (FY 2004) we needed $966,000 in subsidy and received $850,000 and self-funded from equity an estimated $116,000 to avoid a service loss. The fare increase has offset that amount somewhat. This year we are requesting $1,061,000 in subsidy; a $200,000 increase from last year. Most of the increase is to overcome the annual shortfall in matching funds rolling forward.
- c. Updates on Triennial & Financial Management Oversight Reviews. SMITH stated we finished answering and submitted the requested documentation for the first round of the Triennial Review. The auditors will be at our facility on May 3rd and 4th for their site review. SMITH stated the Financial Management Oversight auditors were here for three days in February and will be returning for a period of two to three weeks to do field work.
- d. Disposition of Old Fareboxes. SMITH stated he sent a request to all region transit operators via the Internet to see if anyone would be interested in the 1975 fareboxes for free. The only response was from the Seacoast Trolley Museum. SMITH wants to avoid disposal costs and the fareboxes only have value if used by a transit system or agency like the trolley museum. JESPERSEN suggested selling them on E-Bay and offered to do it for the MTA. There was discussion about how much they could be sold for and the preparation for shipment.

TRISCIANI made a motion to allow JESPERSEN to sell the fareboxes on E-Bay for the MTA. Seconded by DESELLE. All Commissioners in favor.

NON-PUBLIC SESSION

5. a. Non-Public Session per RSA's 91-A:3, II. (a) and (e). At 6:30 PM TRISCIANI made a motion to go into Non-Public Session per RSA 91-A:3, II. (a) and (e). Seconded by BOISVERT. Roll call was taken with all Commissioners in favor. At 7:10 PM, on a motion by BOISVERT, seconded by JESPERSEN, with all Commissioners in favor, Non Public Session ended at 7:10 PM. TRISCIANI reported during this session the Board was briefed on contract negotiations. No motions were made regarding negotiations. TRISCIANI stated there was discussion about non-affiliated employees receiving a wage increase.

BOISVERT made a motion to provide a 2% wage increase to non-affiliated employees with retroactivity to July 1, 2003. Seconded by GUSTAFSON. All Commissioners in favor.

OTHER BUSINESS

- 6. a. Hampton Beach Excursion: JESPERSEN made a motion to run the Hampton Beach Shuttle on Sundays starting May 30, 2004, with the Executive Director to use his discretion on how to run these trips. Seconded by TRISCIANI. All Commissioners in favor.
 - b. Date for Next Meeting. Tuesday, April 27, 2004 at 5:00 PM.

With no further business to come before the Board, DESELLE made a motion to adjourn the meeting at 7:10 PM. Seconded by GUSTAFSON. All Commissioners in favor.

Board of Mayor and Aldermen City Hall 1 City Hall Plaza Manchester, NH 03101

Dear Members of the Board:

In recent weeks we have learned that the Board of Mayor and Aldermen have voted against the establishment of a halfway house for federal prisoners in the Manchester area. In light of the fact that many of the inmates of such an institution would likely be natives of this area, with family ties here, it would seem logical that they would be given the opportunity to re-establish those ties in a supervised process which would include help in finding suitable employment, and in developing a satisfactory work ethic. At this time, the Greater Manchester Clergy Association therefore recommends that the Board of Mayor and Aldermen take a positive stance toward the concept of such a halfway house being located in the Manchester area.

Sincerely yours,

Elise B. Tougas

Re:

Request for Contingency Funds

Voting Machine Upgrades/Replacements

The City's voting machines are in need of upgrades and partial replacements to meet the demands of the upcoming elections. I am requesting a transfer from Contingency of $34,620.00 to address the problems.

The voting machines were purchased nine years ago, and while they have served us well, they are getting tired. The last three elections have presented problems and it is my belief that lack of addressing the problem will result in some wards having to hand-count their ballots at the presidential election this year.

The upgrading of these machines will also allow the machines to better read the ballots regardless of what instrument is used for marking the ballot, since the readers are much more sensitive than the original models the City purchased.

Regardless of other machines that will be required under the HAVA regulations, the City will still be able to utilize these machines once upgraded. Your favorable consideration would be most appreciated.

The Committee on Community Improvement respectfully recommends, after due and careful consideration, that the Board approve expediting four infrastructure improvement bond projects totaling $720,000 from the FY2005 proposed CIP as follows:

Re: Purchase of New Vehicles

Dear Committee Members:

The Mayor has authorized a transfer of $30,000.00 for within the Parks, Recreation and Cemetery Budget to purchase 2 vehicles.

The vehicles to be replaced are a 1988 panel van and a 1987 station wagon. Both vehicles are severely rusted and will not pass state inspection without a significant amount of body work. The repair of these vehicles would be cost prohibitive.

I am requesting the Committee's approval to move forward with these purchases, utilizing the State of NH procurement process.

I will be available to answer any questions you may have relative to this request

Sincerely,

Re: Request to Approve Chronic Drain Projects

Gentlemen:

The Manchester Highway Department hereby requests your approval to complete work on the following projects as part of the City's Chronic Drain program and as funding becomes available:

Project:	Estimated Cost:
Cushing Avenue to Dead End	$7,000
Westwood Drive	$13,000
East High at Weston	$2,500
Margarite Street	$10,000
Total Estimated Cost:	$32,500

The Department has reviewed our list of chronic drain projects and feel that these are the highest priority. Once our current projects are complete, and funding becomes available for F.Y. 2004, we expect to have a balance of about $38,000. The total materials cost of the proposed work is approximately $32,500. For your use, I have attached an estimates and sketches of each project.

Note that there is an existing Cushing Avenue project that is underway. This new Cushing Avenue project is a continuation of the existing one. This project will be funded with existing chronic drain funding.

The other projects will be funded out of balances in the Chronic Drain program combined with F.Y. 2005 funding. If you have any questions or comments or if I can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to call.

Very truly yours,

Bruce A. Thomas Engineering Manager

Renewal.

Gentlemen:

As the committee is aware staff consisting of Tom Lolicata, Denise Boutilier, Kevin Clougherty and myself have been negotiating a garage operating agreement amendment and renewal with the Center of New Hampshire. These negotiations have resulted in a proposed agreement which I have attached for the committees review. I have also attached a copy of the original agreement that the proposed agreement amends and extends.

We would ask that the committee recommend acceptance of the proposed parking garage operating agreement amendment and renewal to the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.

As the proposed parking garage operating agreement amendment and renewal has been drafted so that its term starts on July 1, 2004, to coincide with the City's fiscal year, we would ask that the current agreement be extended to June 30, 2004.

I will be in attendance at the Committee's meeting on May 11, 2004 should there be any questions.

Very truly yours,

Thomas I. Arnold, III Deputy City Solicitor

Inhofe decries "do-gooders"

By CHARLES BABINGTON
The Washington Post

WASHINGTON — The Senate hearing on prison abuse in Iraq had been under way yesterday for quite a while, and James In-hofe, R-Okla., had heard all he could stand.

It was not his colleagues' windy speeches that incensed windy speeches that incensed him, nor photos of U.S. soldiers mistreating Iraqi detainees. Rather, Inhofe said when his turn finally came, he was fed up with all the "do-gooders" making such a fuss.

I'm probably not the only one up at this table that is more outraged by the outrage than we are by the treatment." Inhofe told fellow Armed Services Committee members investigating the treatment of immares at Abu Ghralb prison. "You know, they're not there for traffic violations," he said. Place, a much larger development in which he is a partner at Bridge and Elm streets. "There is really no relation-ship between these subcontractor issues at 815 Elm St. and the Manchester Place development on Bridge and Elm streets," said attorney Daniel J. Norris, who represents Silvestri and is a di-rector in the corporate depart-ment of Manchester law firm McLane, Graf, Raulerson and Middleton. He said Manchester Place, in which Boston-based developer Brian Dacey is also a partner, has different, independent financing sources.

Silvestri, who also is president of Salem-based Silvestri Development and Construction Inc., recently listed 815 Elm St. for sale with Stebbins Commercial Property Inc. for $2,050,000. He said he has invested more than $1.5 million there.

"With the $1 million I personally put into the building, and having only a $550,000 mort-gage with the bank, to have a couple thousand dollars worth of liens ... isn't out of the or-dinary if things were done the way they were supposed to be done," Silvestri said yesterday.

Silvestri said his net worth is $9.5 million. The total value of his ongoing projects, including Manchester Place and a mixeduse retail-housing development in Hooksett, is in excess of $100 million, he said.

The following liens have been placed against 815 Elm Street Development LLC, in which Silvestri is a principal: • Fortin Electric LLC of Hud-son, $33,734.78. • Kel-Rick Construction Man- agement Inc., $15,787.50.

- Otis Elevator, approximately $12,000, of which $7,500 has been paid.

Electrical contractor Fortin said the 815 Elm St, liens are not the only ones he has placed against Silvestri development projects to ensure payment. He placed a lien against another Silvestri project, Stache Place, off Second Street in Manches ter, for $4,660 in April. He also filed a workmen's lien against the Skaff Cryogenics building in Brentwood, Fortin said. Fortin said it is difficult to repair strained relationships "be-tween me and my suppliers."

Fortin's attorney, Michael Hatem of the Salem firm Hatem and Donovan, said: "In general, mechanic's liens are becoming more prevalent. We do 10 or so a year, and this year I've already done about 20. It seems like the money in construction is starting to tighten up.

Otis Elevator lien

Otis Elevator spokesman Sylvio Albino, in Farmington, Conn., confirmed that Silvestri has paid $7,500 of the $12,000 stipulated in the firm's lien against 815 Elm Street Develop-ment LLC.

Asked in an earlier telephone interview about the Otis Eleva-tor lien, Silvestri said, "When we originally did the elevator, the superintendent on the job signed a bunch of change orsigned a bunch of change or-ders that were unrelated to the project . . . and all of a sudden we got a bill for $15,000 for our change orders." He said he paid $7,500 toward that and is dis-puting the rest. Albino said the company hopes to work out a settlement with Silvestri, but disputed Silvestri's claims of lack of author-ization for change orders, "He signed those change orders and a promissory note," Albino said.

Yesterday, told of Albino's statement, Silvestri said: "Abso-lutely not. I signed the original contract and the base contract was 100 percent paid, and I paid up front half of the total agreed change order amount.

"Now they are requesting a higher amount than what the agreed promissory note was, and that's what we're trying to figure out," Silvestri said.

A spokesman for Kel-Rick Construction Management could not be reached for comment. However, in papers filed with Hillsborough County Superior Court seeking a writ of attachment, Kel-Rick Construction Management Inc. treasurer Brian Kelly said Kel-Rick is owed $15,787.50 for labor and materials furnished to the 815 Elm St. LLC project.

Silvestri said Kel-Rick hilled Silvestri said Kel-Rick billed him for work that wasn't com-pleted. "The reason I wasn't paying the bill was because there was a credit due and I didn't have the bottom line number," he said.

Fortin: No new jobs

Fortin said the money he is owed covers work on fire alarms, power and lighting. "He's cost me 2 percent interest on materials alone; I think I'm still holding about $13,000 of materials," Fortin said. Because materials," Fortin said. Because he hasn't been paid by Silvestri, he hasn't paid his electrical supplier, Fortin said. "I haven't paid the bill yet, no, I 've been paying interest on it through the electrical supplier." he said.

He is trying to complete electrical work for Silvestri at Strabe Diese. Earthings of the page 18 of the p Vestri until the proberns at 015 Elm St. are resolved. Silvestri said Fortin filed the lien after his electric supply company shut him off, "What I'm probably going to have to do is write a two-party check," he said, indicating he would make out the check jointly to Fortin's firm and his electric upply company.

supply company.

The property at 815 Elm St. houses Piccola Italia restaurant on the first floor, Vetro lounge on the second floor, and four upper floors of commercial office space. Silvestri recently said the building generates about $266,000 a year in revenue per year from leases.

Lawyer: Not inability to pay

Attorney Norris said Silvesri's lack of payment does not result from inability to pay. "Each case arose from legitimate questions that Mr. Silvestri has about invoices or work performed, and the timing of the events was such that the contractors had to file liens to protect their rights as we're going through the process.

"They have a certain number of days after the work is sub-stantially completed or they waive their ability to do so," Norris said, "and I am antici-pating that each one of those situations will be resolved amicably, But the process has taken a long enough period of time that the contractors had no choice but to do that so they didn't waive their legal rights." Over the last two years, Silvestri has also fallen in arrears before catching up with city tax payments at 815 Elm St. "With an ongoing construction project as this has been, it's not unusual for municipal tax payments to get behind and then at a point in the project where a draw needs to be taken from a bank loan or the next part of the transaction begins, for those payments to catch up," Norris said.

Currendy, 815 Elm Street Development LLC is up-to-date on property tax payments to the city. However, it is $221.95 in arrears on a wastewater bill, which has not gone to a lien procedure vet.

The only other outstanding balance was $48.79 for the cen-tral business tax as of this week. Annual taxes on the property are $8,266.08, which are current, according to the city Tax Collector's office,

Asked whether city officials are concerned about Silvestri's ability to perform at Bridge and Elm because of the payment problems at 815 Elm, Destination Manchester Coordinator Bill Jabjiniak said, "Christian is a good member of the commua good memoer of the commity. In the construction business, some things like that happen, and I'm sure he'll work through his issues."

Brian Dacey, executive vice president for the Boston-based Drew Co., as well as Silvestri's partner in Manchester Place LLC, declined to comment on Silvestri's financial situation in a recent telephone interview,

A partnership with the city

The proposed $38 million project at the corner of Bridge and Elm streets will feature 200 luxury apartments. The average rent for the apartments will be $1,100-$1,200 for one-bedroom units and $1,500-$1,600 for two bedrooms. There also are retail shops proposed on the street level facing Elm Street.

The city has agreed to finance a 300-car parking garage that will be repaid with property taxes generated at the site.

The federal Housing and Urban Development depart-ment recently issued a commit-ment letter to guarantee the construction loan for Manchester Place. Spokesman Kristine Foye in Boston said the commitment letter was issued April 30, but she could not identify the lender until papers are signed and finalized.

Ward 3 Alderman Frank Guinta, whose district includes both downtown properties with which Silvestri is involved, was ouvestrt is involved, was optimistic problems at 815 Elm St. would not carry over to Bridge and Elm.

"The way I see it, there is a difference in how a project is managed when there is a city partner," Guinta said. "I would describe the city as a partner. We're participating in the garage, so I think you're going to see an additional level of oversight."

Guinta said, "Between the city, Brian Dacey and HUD, you have three vested partners in this project that will ensure that the project and all of the parts of the project, including paying our partners and subcontrac-tors, would be done timely," Guinta said. "The bottom line is we'll make sure that people are paid properly and paid timely. They deserve that.
